

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 16, 2011

Texas Land Title Association
512.472.6593 | tlta@tlta.com

Jacksonville Professional Receives Prestigious Award from Statewide Title Industry Association

AUSTIN – Today, the Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), one of the state’s oldest trade associations, awarded Brandi Abercrombie, CESA, CTIA, Manager of East Texas Title Companies, the esteemed Peggy Hayes Teaching Excellence Award during their Annual Conference in San Antonio. The award honors an instructor for TLTA’s Land Title School of Texas who has shown outstanding service and commitment to the organization and the school.

“We are thrilled to present Brandi with this award,” said Leslie Midgley, Executive Vice President and CEO of TLTA. “Education will continue to be a key part of our mission. And it is now more important than ever that TLTA has dedicated members and volunteers to continue to encourage growth and excellence in the Texas title insurance industry.”

Abercrombie has served on the TLTA Education Committee, Young Professionals Committee and Member Services Committee. She holds two title industry certifications – Certified Escrow Settlement Associate (CESA) and Certified Title Insurance Associate (CTIA) and resides in Bullard with her husband and two daughters.

About TLTA

TLTA is a statewide trade association representing the Texas title insurance industry. Our primary membership consists of licensed title insurance agents and title insurance underwriting companies involved in the safe and efficient transfer of real estate. Founded in 1908 and serving over 13,000 professionals, we provide regulatory and legislative advocacy, continuing education and up-to-date information in keeping with our mission to enhance and preserve the title industry for the benefit of the consumers of Texas. For more information about TLTA visit www.tlta.com